

GREEN WEALTH

MANAGEMENT GROUP

Green Wealth Management Group (GWMG), LLC is proud to welcome David Kania as a Wealth Advisor and the 7th member of GWMG. Dave is well respected and brings years of professional experience to his new role.

Dave graduated summa cum laude with a BA in Economics from Boston College and earned his MBA from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He has over 30 years of experience in the retirement and financial services industries. He started his career at CIGNA Retirement Services where he spent seven years in retirement plan underwriting, client service and investment consulting roles before pivoting to sales with Manulife Financial in 1996. After Manulife, Dave narrowed his focus to investment management and has held business development and leadership roles with firms such as Transamerica Investment Management, Sentinel Investments and First Pacific Advisors.

Dave is a dedicated and active member of Midd-South Catholic Church. He has volunteered his time in both leadership and service roles for the Men's Ministry, Mustard Seed Committee and parish Finance Council. Dave's impact through these activities has allowed organizations locally and around the world to effect positive change in their respective communities.

Dave is married and has four teenage children whose school-related and sporting activities fill most of his free time. He also enjoys golfing, skiing, hiking and most anything outdoors. David and his family reside in Southbury, CT where they have lived for over 20 years.
